

J. Phineas Leevy

Phineas was born in Brooklyn New York, and raised in Judeo and Christian household. Baptized and Bar- Mitzvah'ed, he was introduced to eastern religious traditions in high school at age 16 with an elective course: Physics and Eastern Thought (Taoism, Buddhism and quantum theory). He followed with electives in Religion and Philosophy while attending Syracuse University, and while earning a degree in Logistics and marketing management at the Whitman School of Management.

Phineas has since added relevant study in Emotional body work and healing at the Center for the New Age in Phonecia New York; Kundalini Yoga Practice in Syracuse NY; and has 3 years of TM practice including advance techniques.

He is currently an account manager in the Biotech industry where he has earned numerous selling awards.... And practices the art of living miraculously.